RESERVE BOARD ASKED TO RELIEVE WOOL INDUSTRY

Washington, D. C., June 22. - The oderal reserve board today had be fore if plans made yesterday by rep-resentatives of several wool growers and dealers' associations and by manufacturers and bankers for im-mediate relief for the wool producing industry.

The sudden drop in the price of wool on May 20 from 45 cents to about 20 cents a point, with no buy-ers even at that figure, has caused a crisis which threatens heavy loses to producers the beard was told.
